11:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Virtual Meeting

The Power of Words: How to Build a Culture of Success & Legacy, presented by Coach James Lovejoy, Streetsboro High School Assistant Football Coach & 2019 Streetsboro Citizen of the Year.

James Lovejoy has more than a decade of coaching experience, leading & mentoring youth of all ages in football, baseball & wrestling. He is currently an assistant football coach at Streetsboro High School where he helped to lead his team to its first undefeated season and state playoff run in years!

In addition to his coaching activities, Coach Lovejoy is passionate about people & community. He has hosted several outreach initiatives throughout the county, has mentored several people that have come out of poverty & addiction and even started their own businesses. In recognition of his work, the Streetsboro Chamber of Commerce honored him as the 2019 Streetsboro Citizen of the Year.

This training is ideal for all staff, especially CEO's, managers and supervisors!

Please RSVP online no later than 12pm on Tuesday, September 22. Please note this meeting is limited to 100 participants and is for current FY21 members only. Unless approved prior to the virtual meeting, non-member registrations will be cancelled. Registrations approved manually, must RSVP prior to deadline.
